

DAY 1: Wednesday 5 June

KĀINGA TAHI KĀINGA RUA – MAORI HOUSING THINK TANK

8.00	Registration opens (Amokura - Level 4)
9.00	Mihi Whakatau (Amokura - Level 4) Neavin Broughton
9:30	Morning tea and networking (Amokura - Level 4)
10.00	Welcome address (Amokura - Level 4) Dr Jessica Hutchings, Tumu Whakarae, Building Better Homes Towns and Cities, National Science Challenge
10:30	KEYNOTE ADDRESS W1.0 (Amokura - Level 4) Dr Moana Jackson: Treaty rights, human rights and the right to housing This keynote speech sets the foundation for the conference by articulating the issues and opportunities for a collaborative human-rights and Te Tiriti o Waitangi-based housing strategy for Aotearoa New Zealand. It looks at the impact of colonisation in the current housing crisis and the ongoing issues of Māori landlessness and homelessness.
11.30	PLENARY W1.1 (Amokura - Level 4) Building compelling Māori housing evidence from kaupapa Māori research (Rau Hoskins, Rihi Te Nana, Jenny Nuku, Dr John Reid, Jacqueline Paul and James Berghan) Through the lens of Te Manaaki o te Marae and Rangatahi perceptions of Papakāinga and housing, this session presents recent evidence from kaupapa Māori research to further understandings of Māori housing. Possible economic solutions for Māori housing will also be explored.
13.00	Lunch and networking (Oceania - Level 3)
13.45	PLENARY W1.2 (Amokura - Level 4) Changing neighbourhoods and urban spaces for whānau Māori – what do we already know and how do we work with housing developers? Whānau health and wellbeing in urban spaces – what has been and continues to be the impact of urban development for whānau Māori, communities and neighbourhoods. What has happened? Discussion – where is the disconnect? What needs to happen next and how can urban development be done differently? GI project – (20 mins) Dr Ella Henry and Tamati Patuwai , Vertical Papakāinga (20 mins) Rau Hoskins and Anahera Rawiri , Mangatawa: community transformation through papakāinga (20 mins) Helen Potter
15.30	Afternoon tea and networking (Oceania - Level 3)
16.00	WORKSHOP W1.3 Transforming Communities: Papakāinga (Amokura - Level 4) How can living on your papakāinga be transformative and what are the challenges and opportunities that can arise for living differently and for living as Māori? Heeni Hoterene
16:15 – 16:35	WORKSHOP W1.4 (Amokura - Level 4) He Kāinga Pai Rawa Atu Mō Ngā Kaumātua: A Really Good Home for our Kaumātua He Keteparaha Tēnei Mō Te Whare Kaumātua: A Toolkit for Kaumātua Housing Rangimahora Reddy , CEO Rauawaawa Kaumātua Charitable Trust Yvonne Wilson , Te Rūnanga o Kirikiriroa Dr Mary Simpson and Dr Sophie Nock , University of Waikato
16:35	SUMMARY OF THE DAY W1.4 (Amokura - Level 4) Dr Jessica Hutchings
16:45 – 17:10	Rangitahi and kaumātua reflections (Amokura - Level 4)
17.10 – 19.00	Welcome reception (Oceania - Level 3)

DAY 2: Thursday 6 June

#THE SHIFT / TOWARDS A HOUSING SYSTEM

8.00	Registration and refreshments (Oceania - Level 3)
9.00	Welcome to Day 2 – Piri Cribb MC – reports from the Māori Housing Think Tank (Amokura - Level 4)
9:15	Opening: #The Shift- Video Presentation Leilani Farha , UN Special Rapporteur (by video) (10 mins)
9.25	KEYNOTE T1.0 (Amokura - Level 4) #The Shift: The thinking required to achieve “A well-functioning housing system, and productive, sustainable and inclusive cities and towns” Paul Hunt , Chief Commissioner, New Zealand Human Rights Commission (20 mins)
9:45	PANEL T1.1 (Amokura - Level 4) Me ora kāinga tahi, me ora kāinga rua: Get the home functioning well the first time, and the second time Dignity and the Right to Housing can become part of our language and could inform a well-functioning housing system. Will this foster #The Shift to enable people to have access to housing that works for them? Will it ensure we resolve the housing crisis, and ensure it never happens again? Facilitator: Rau Hoskins , Chair, Te Matapihi Panelists: Paul Hunt , Chief Human Rights Commissioner Hurimoana Denis , Te Puea Memorial Marae, Indigenous Homeless Service Delivery Model: Manaaki Tangata e Rua Pania Newton , Ihumātao
10:30	KEYNOTE T1.2 (Amokura - Level 4) Where from, where to – Reflections on Research and a Better Housing Future The New Zealand housing crisis is of our own making – so how do we stop making the problem worse, and turn it around? Dr Saville-Smith will canvas the range of solutions, drawing across a wide range of evidence and practice, and paint the picture that inspires us moving forward Dr Kay Saville-Smith , CRESA
10:55	“We Believe” Video – Introduced by Hope Simonsen , ACHPN Chair + National Housing Manager, Emerge Aotearoa and Scott Figneshow , CEO CHA
11.00	Morning tea and networking (Oceania - Level 3)
11:30 – 12.00	PLENARY T2.1 (Amokura - Level 4) Building a picture of a well-functioning housing system Introduction by Scott Figneshow , CEO, Community Housing Aotearoa Andrew Crisp , CEO, Ministry of Housing and Urban Development (MHUD) An update from HUD on the Government Policy Statement work, and the future shape of HUD and HUDA. Housing System Mapping – is this a next step in the sector’s partnership with government?
12.00 – 12:45	PLENARY T2.3 (Amokura - Level 4) Housing at the Centre of Better Lives: Findings from The Mental Health Enquiry, the Welfare Expert Advisory Group and the Better Later in Life Strategy These three major initiatives all have strong references to the need for finding housing solutions. Conversation on the connections – and how they can drive #The Shift – is essential. Hear our speakers’ viewpoints on what our next steps could look like. Diane Turner, Office of Seniors Dr Barbara Disley, CEO Emerge Aotearoa, Mental Health and Addictions Enquiry Panel Ganesh Nana, Chief Economist and Executive Director BERL, Welfare Expert Advisory Group Facilitated by Susan Jenkins, CEO, Abbeyfield NZ	WORKSHOP T2.2 (Rangimarie 1 - Level 3) The Results are in what residents say about placemaking, mixed tenure and mixed income developments Two distinct research papers have been completed which show unequivocally that there are great resident and community outcomes when placemaking is done well and includes mixed tenure and mixed income housing delivery. Dr Karen Witten, Massey University/ SHORE Whariki: “Developing Community: Following the Waimahia Inlet affordable housing initiative” Dominic Foote, Housing Foundation Ian Mitchell, Livingston & Associates

DAY 2: Thursday 6 June

#THE SHIFT / TOWARDS A HOUSING SYSTEM

12.45 – 13:30	Lunch and networking (Oceania - Level 3)
13.30 – 14:15	KEYNOTE T2.4 (Amokura - Level 4) Treating the land differently: The economic case for value uplift, capture, retention and recycling Dr Christine Whitehead, Professor Emeritus, London School of Economics on why and how it makes sound economic and fiscal sense to value land so that community outcomes are evaluated (and achieved) ahead of (or on par with) financial return.	WORKSHOP ONE T2.6 Beyond Housing First – A system response to ending homelessness 1.30 – 3.00pm (Rangimarie 1 - Level 3) In 2019, a number of Housing First programmes have been implemented across New Zealand. However, there is much work to be done on developing and aligning a range of housing and support options into a coherent response to homelessness. This session is an opportunity for kāupapa Māori providers, Housing First providers, transitional housing providers and anyone who is interested to explore how we build an effective system response to ending homelessness. Facilitated by Moira Lawler, CEO, Lifewise
14:15 – 15:00	KEYNOTE T2.5 (Amokura - Level 4) Housing as Infrastructure Housing as infrastructure, a basic human right – shifting the narrative from housing as a commodity. And what do we want it to be? In 2017 Leilani Farha highlighted the financialisation of housing, its consequences, and its impact on access to adequate housing. This session will explore what ‘housing as a commodity’ vs ‘housing as infrastructure’ means in a practical sense in the Australian and New Zealand context. The session will explore why and how treating housing as a commodity drives particular behaviours and outcomes that privilege some and disadvantage many. Finally, the session will discuss what needs to be done and how a shift to housing as infrastructure can be supported and achieved. Jago Dodson, Professor of Urban Policy and Director of the Centre for Urban Research at RMIT University
15.00	Afternoon tea and networking
15:30	WORKSHOP T2.7 (Amokura - Level 4) (1.5 hr session) Finance for affordable rental and homeownership Community housing providers have long sought fresh sources of capital. The sector has asked Government for an Affordable Housing Fund. Come hear what the research says, what the Budget signalled, and cast a view on what future capital sources could enable community housing providers to do. Scott Figenshow, Community Housing Aotearoa Joy Marslin, New Ground Capital Dr Larry Murphy, University of Auckland Facilitated by Jeff Mosley, Fulbright Specialist	WORKSHOP T2.8 (Rangimarie 2 - Level 3) (2 hr session) Two+Rethink Two+Rethink is a free training programme for social housing organisations to ensure staff have the tools and confidence to respond to mental distress. It is part of Like Minds, Like Mine, a national programme to end stigma and discrimination related to mental distress and increase social inclusion. We have condensed our 4 hour workshops into this interactive and exciting session to give participants an opportunity to gain further insights, support and resources in their everyday practice. Let’s explore attitudes, awareness and our practice towards those with mental distress. Presented by Codey Bell, Rethink Mind and Body	WORKSHOP TWO T2.9 (Rangimarie 1 - Level 3) (2 hr session) Housing First Community of Practice: What next? This is a focused planning session to explore broadening the Community of Practice and future directions. Open to Housing First Community of Practice members and others who are interested in shaping the sector and system supports for ending homelessness. Facilitated by Chris Glaudel, CHA and the Community of Practice Scott Gallacher, DCE, Ministry of Housing and Urban Development
18.00 – 22.00	Reception and Australasian Housing Institute (AHI) Professional Excellence in Housing Awards Dinner (separate ticket required) Sponsored by Housing New Zealand (Venue: The Boatshed, Taranaki Street Wharf) Hon Phil Twyford, Minister for Housing and Urban Development and Minister for Transport

DAY 3: Friday 7 June

THE WAY FORWARD

8.00	Registration and refreshments (Oceania - Level 3)
9.00	Welcome to Day 3 – MC Piri Cribb – Recap from prior day (Amokura - Level 4)
9:15	PLENARY F1.1 (Amokura - Level 4) Advocacy: what's happening and how we can work together for impact Providers have joined forces recently on the KiwiBuy campaign. What's next? Claire Szabo , CEO Habitat for Humanity NZ
9.30	WORKSHOP F2.1 (Amokura - Level 4) KiwiBuy: activating Homeownership Learn about the campaign to increase the delivery of progressive homeownership offerings around NZ. Presentations from providers delivering rent to buy, shared ownership and related offerings, covering the range of homeownership options. The workshop will unpack what is needed for growth. Facilitated by Campbell Roberts , The Salvation Army and Chris Glaudel , CHA	WORKSHOP F2.3 (Rangimarie 1 - Level 3) How to make policy informed by knowledge: affordable rental and homeownership A workshop to explore how to co-create the local Government housing policy settings that address intermediate market needs. Through the lens of affordable rental, rent to buy, shared equity and secure home ownership programmes, providers and policy makers will examine what the path towards co-created system settings could look like. Facilitated by Patricia Austin and Dr Christine Whitehead	WORKSHOP F2.5 (Rangimarie 2 - Level 3) What community housing sector growth looks like in practice: Asset Management Key learnings from CORT's evolving asset management approaches – from managing 25 properties to managing 400. The session will share learning and experiences, current approaches and challenges, and stimulate thinking about building capacity "on the ground" to deliver best practice asset management Michael O'Keefe , CORT Community Housing
10.15	WORKSHOP F2.2 (Amokura - Level 4) We Believe ... It's "Time to Build" ... The Shift: our sector strategic engagement plans The Auckland CHP Network has led the development of the 'We Believe' video and the "Time to Build" report. CHA is asking for member input to shape the communications and engagement approach of CHA on behalf of and with the sector. Initiatives include providing a unified voice supported by evidence, and building a coalition of wider partners. The session will review the proposed strategies, how these can be implemented and how we can align with local and regional efforts. Hope Simonsen , ACHPN Chair + Emerge Aotearoa, David Zussman , CHA Senior Programme Manager	WORKSHOP F2.4 (Rangimarie 1 - Level 3) A SNUG in your backyard – a scale option for CHPs? This workshop will explore how we can deliver additional dwelling units in a more efficient way, through consenting and financial settings that could see a large uptake in backyards across New Zealand. PrefabNZ has developed the SNUG Home as an additional dwelling unit (ADU), that can be a home for your children as they adventure out into independent living, a safe place for extended family members, or a work-space to provide an alternative to commuting. Research findings illustrate the potential this option has in our communities. Pamela Bell , CEO, Prefab NZ Toni Kennerley , Director, Planalytics	WORKSHOP F2.6 (Rangimarie 2 - Level 3) Ready2Rent This collaborative effort prepares whānau currently living in overcrowded or emergency housing with the skills to secure their own rental. Budget First in Hastings works with Te Taiwhenua o Heretaunga, Emerge Aotearoa and the Salvation Army to deliver practical advice. Partners in the delivery include MBIE Tenancy Services, Hawkes Bay DHB, HNZN, the MSD and the Hawkes Bay Property Investors Association. Participants receive a certificate upon completion, which is increasingly valued by landlords in the region. Come learn about this innovative approach and how you might replicate it in your local community. Facilitated by Yvonne Dickey , Budget First
11.00	Morning tea and networking (Oceania - Level 3)
11:30	PLENARY F3.2 (Amokura - Level 4) Making #The Shift– activator, enabler, partner » Report back from conference sessions with top 3 learnings (30 minutes) » CHA members present what they can deliver (30 minutes)
12:00	» Kāinga Strategic Action Plan learnings and next steps (15 minutes)
12:30	Consensus facilitated by leaders across the programme
12:45	PLENARY F3.3 (Amokura - Level 4) Building toward the April 2020 National Māori Housing Conference Emma Horgan , Te Taiwhenua o Heretaunga
13.00	KEYNOTE ADDRESS F3.4 (Amokura - Level 4) Hon Nanaia Mahuta , Associate Minister of Housing, Minister for Local Government Presentation and Acknowledgement: BBHTC and CHA Council
13.20	Conference Close – Poroporoaki (Amokura - Level 4)
13.30	Lunch and networking (Oceania - Level 3)		